

Moments in Mentoring

Real Connections Spotlights

Volume 2, Issue 5
May 2013

Collaborative Training on May 13 at 6 pm at AS220, Providence. The topic is racial disparities. Professor Monica Teixeira de Sousa will address legal rights for families and students, as well as what mentors can do to support their mentees.

Save the Date: Jaiya John will speak on May 30. Time and location TBA. Jaiya was born into foster care and is now a powerful speaker and poet.

Many thanks to Blount Fine Foods and Chef John Cantwell for offering their facility and teaching cooking classes to our mentors and mentees!

If your business has an opportunity for a mentor and mentee activity, we would love to partner with you. Contact Kate at x108.

Big thanks to mentor Jordan Pavlides of NY Life Insurance for exploring grant opportunities to benefit our youth!

Activities & Events

Ringling Bros. and Barnum Bailey: Built To Amaze. See circus performers create acts of bravery and athleticism that will amaze you! May 3rd-6th at the Dunkin Donuts Center, Providence. Visit ticketmaster.com for ticket pricings and more information.

Pawtucket and Central Fall's Cherry Blossom Festival on May 4th and 5th. Food vendors, kayaking, bike rides, road races, trivia, live entertainment, and more! Visit www.richerryblossomfestival.com for locations and event details.

Aquidneck Island National Police Parade on May 5 at 11:50. Features 4,000 law enforcement participants to commemorate National Police Week. Parade begins on West Main going toward Newport.

Springfest in Misquamicut. May 12 and 13 at Misquamicut State Beach. Carnival and amusement rides, petting zoo, international food court, music, and games!

Providence Roller Derby Double Header on May 18. Support the RI Riveters and Old Money Honeys at Thayer Arena in Warwick at 6 pm. Tickets are $10 in advance, $15 at the door. Kids 5-12 are $5. Visit providencerollerderby.ticketleap.com to purchase tickets.

Waterfire begins at sunset on Friday, May 31 in downtown Providence.

The Pawtucket Red Sox season is in full swing! Schedule and ticket info are available online at www.pawsox.com.

BYOI Show- Bring Your Own Improv. This interactive improve show welcomes voluntary audience participation. Every Sunday from 6-8 pm at the Warwick Museum of Art. Tickets are $6. www.bringyourownimprov.com

Real Connections Staff

401-438-3900

Youth Support Specialists:

Stacy x103

Danielle x119

Bernadette x120

Michelle x119

Program Coordinator:

Kate Bronner x108